

Electricity: The majority of our yachts are equipped with power lines, battery charger and 110V plugs. There is a 12V cigarette lighter outlet by the chart table on the majority of our yachts.

Embarkation/Disembarkation Time: Your charter starts and ends at 10 a.m., Sunday to Sunday.

Currency: Although dollars are widely accepted in resort areas (and often preferred), we recommend using pesos during your stay. We recommend exchanging $20-$30 into pesos before leaving the U.S./Canada. This way you will arrive in Mexico with pesos for cab fare to your hotel. Also, carry $20-$30 in one-dollar bills - they are great for tipping. Credit cards are widely accepted, with Visa and Mastercard being the cards of choice.

Taxis: Taxis are available all over town. There are two stands within the marina. Taxis are inexpensive and have no meters. It is best to barter the fare before you start your trip, as the government sets prices. Taxi drivers are normally honest and do not overcharge. Taxis will charge for waiting if you make extra stops. This rate is charged by the hour.

The Stunning Contrast Of Baja

Our base is located at Marina Palmira near the bustling city of La Paz. A 30-minute taxi ride will take you from the airport to our base. Spend a little time exploring La Paz before or after you set sail. If you're looking for authentic dining and shopping experiences, you'll find them in Baja's largest city.

Sail Through The Desert

From our base sail north to Espiritu Santo and Isla Partida. Here, amid 20 million years of geological history, you'll find stunning white beaches and sandy bays. About 18 miles north, you'll reach Isla San Francisco, with its perfect horseshoe cove fringed by a beautiful beach. Continue to Puerto Los Gatos, where red coastal bluffs outline a majestic table-top mountain rising 3,000 feet. Further north, visit spectacular Yellowstone Beach on the northern tip of Monserrate. South of the lighthouse on Carmen the beaches are spectacular. Then, there's the "Hidden Port" of Puerto Escondido, a perfect natural harbor magically formed within this rugged terrain.

The stunning contrast of calm blue water against the arid backdrop of the Baja Peninsula seems surreal at first. Effortlessly you sail past impossibly rugged terrain where thick forests of Cardon cactus cling to jagged slopes. In Baja, you are surrounded by deserted islands, quiet beaches and magnificent volcanic mountains. Hiking, snorkeling, diving, even whale watching are yours to enjoy amid this unique cruising area.
